Part III DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321[®] may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 29-152 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of U. S. Patent No. 6,148,065, claims 1-35 of U.S. Patent No. 5,815,551, claims 1-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,016,344, claims 1-41 of U.S. Patent No. 4,845,739 and claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 4,792,968. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the subject matter claimed in the instant application is merely rewritten to provide the method corresponding to the apparatus claims of those claims pointed out above with further variations of the presentation of the limitations as previously presented as well as the rewording and rephrasing of certain phrases and further as per the remarks of paper #3 each of any newly added limitations is fully disclosed in the parent patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter. As such, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See also MPEP § 804.

3. The enormous number of claims as presented would be allowable over the tremendously burdensome amount of applicable prior art of record as can best be determined at this time if a properly filed terminal disclaimer is timely filed.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
